

Pony Club Chart of Learning

2020

Member Certifications will always include their highest HM earned first, followed by the highest certification(s) earned in any riding discipline (Eventing, Dressage, Hunter Seat Equitation, Show Jumping, and Western).

Example: Sally Sicklehock – H-B HM, C-2 EV, B DR, C-1 HSE, D-3 WST

Local Level Certifications - Progression begins at the D-1 with members moving up through the Standards in the desired track (HM, EV, DR, HSE, WST) to the C-2 level. Movement from one riding discipline level to another is acceptable when it is to the SAME certification level, see certification FAQ's. Riding Certifications cannot be awarded until the HM section for the level is passed. Contact your DC/CA to arrange for a testing.

HORSE MANAGEMENT (HM)	RIDING CERTIFICATIONS (EV, DR, HSE, WST)	NOTES
D-1		D-1 Test: Includes HM and Riding, is the same for all disciplines Eventing-D-2 through C-2: May take the HM, Flat, and Jumping tests all at one time or individually. Flat must precede Jumping test. Riding Certifications cannot be awarded until the HM section for the level is passed. Dressage, Hunter Seat Equitation, and Western D-2 through C-2: HM may be tested separately, but all riding sections must be tested together.
D-2	D-2
D-3	D-3
C-1	C-1
C-2	C-2

National Level Certifications - Progression begins at either the H-B Horse Management or the C+ Riding. Movement from one riding discipline level to another is acceptable when it is to the SAME certification level, see certification FAQ's, with the exception that C-2 Eventing members may test into the C-3 of any the disciplines (EV, DR, and SJ). C-2 Hunter Seat Equitation members flow into Showing Jumping. Eventing C-3, B, A members may register to test the entire certification level or split the certification into two different tests (Phase 1 & 2) . See certification FAQ's for more detailed information on Eventing phase testing. Apply online at www.ponyclub.org
